

Online Health Support Chat

The online health support chats are a safe place to post questions and learn about helpful strategies and resources for better managing chronic pain. All chats are hosted by clinicians from the Paediatric Chronic Pain Service at the Women's and Children's Hospital. We run separate sessions for adolescents aged 10-18yrs and for parents.

To find out the next available dates and register your interest, contact us! Health.PaediatricChronicPainService@sa.gov.au

